Spring Greetings

As April arrives we start to witness signs that spring has sprung, the crocuses are popping up and the trees are starting to bud.

Our training year 2008-09 is almost completed, we would like to thank our instructors, proctors and volunteers for a job well done, and soon they will be able take a well earned rest.

What is left to do before we bring down the curtain is the graduation ceremony and AGM, these two functions will as in recent years be held on the same date. This has proved to be efficient and attractive to the members who like to attend both events, and we feel that it is a good thing for the new members i.e. the boating grads to get a glimpse of some of the formalities that are an important part of our endeavour.

Our 60th AGM/Graduation will be held at 1830 on May 01, 2009 at Macassa Bay Yacht Club, Hamilton.

Following socializing and dinner we will present the students with their certificates and hand out awards to top students. Also during the graduation portion of the evening is the interesting and very important awarding of merit marks, letters of appreciation, and various forms of recognition to those who have served us well for many years.

The AGM, comprised of an audit review committee report, the commander's report and the change of watch will follow immediately upon the tables being cleared. It shouldn't take more than 20 minutes. Please come and join us by calling Glynis at 905-527-1606 – tickets for Dinner are $20.00 and the AGM is free to attend.

This spring we will have a special event as the Hamilton Squadron celebrates it's 60th anniversary. Please attend our Wine & Cheese Reception on May 30, 2009, at the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club, Hamilton from 1400 to 1600. (Seating is limited, so please RSVP by May 22/09 - Glynis 905-527-1606)

We would really love to see all members attend. It will be a golden, or should it be platinum opportunity to be with friends that you have not seen for a long time.

There will be some officers from headquarters and also some government dignitaries to help us celebrate this milestone.

A special 60th anniversary publication is in the works so come and see if your picture is in it. A free copy will be given to members at the reception at RHYC. (If you would like to reserve a copy please contact P/R/C Marney Warby at 905-389-5719)

Niagara District AGM will be in Port Dover on May 09, 2009 at which Chief Commander H. Cole will present a plaque to Hamilton Squadron in recognition of our 60 years.

This year is Port Dover Squadron's 60th as well, and they are marking the event in conjunction with the Niagara District AGM. Port Dover welcomes all and if you intend to stay over night you may want to reserve accommodation early.

On May 23, 2009 from noon to 3pm at the Bronte Outer Harbour Marina there will be the 2nd Boating Safety Symposium and disposal of flares.

The marina is beautiful and one may walk the docks to look at the boats. There are many representations from a variety of boating related interests and it is free!

Hamilton, Burlington and Oakville Squadrons will be on site with course information, and those who wish may challenge the boating proficiency test to obtain the pleasure craft operator card.

You will also be able to arrange to have a squadron Boating Specialist do a pleasure craft courtesy check on your vessel. This is a free service and well worth having done. It could save your life and maybe even enable you to avoid fines.

Recently you may have received your membership notice, which can be paid online at www.cps-ecp.ca, or directly by phone to CPS 1-888-277-2628 or you can contact our Membership officer, Carole Morgan at 905-635-1798.

I encourage you to keep your squadron emembership up to date, so you will know about up coming social events, and it keeps your subscription of Canadian Yachting coming in the mail. There are other benefits of the membership which we will update and list on our website www.hamiltonpowersquadron.ca

Please look at our new column in this newsletter from Cowan Insurance Brokers and please contact them to ask any questions regarding insuring your boats, home, etc.

Look forward to seeing you at some our events. If any member is interested in participating on the bridge, or in proctoring, or instruction of our courses we look forward to hearing from you. Please contact me directly or anyone on the 2009/10 Bridge.

Wishing you warm breezes and sunshine this summer,

Vicky

To the Members, Hamilton Power & Sail Squadron:

COWAN INSURANCE COLUMN

We have a new Cowan Insurance Column in our Newsletter!

It's similar to a "Dear Abby", except insurance-related questions. Here at Cowan, we believe in answering questions and sharing information so we can all learn from each other.

Feel free to email Cowan Insurance with your questions and/or stories! They will be published in future newsletters (and you will be kept anonymous).

Dear Carla:

What's the difference between "agreed value" and "actual cash value" policies?

Dear CPS Member:

"Agreed value" means that you and your insurance company "agree" on the value your boat is insured for. In the event of a total loss, you will receive the full stated amount, with no depreciation. "Actual cash value" means you will only receive the amount your boat is worth at the time of the loss, including depreciation. For example, if your boat is insured for $100,000 and your boat sinks, an "agreed value" policy will pay out the full $100,000. In contrast, an "actual cash value" policy will pay out $100,000 less depreciation.

Cowan policies are always "agreed value" policies. Although "agreed value" policies may cost a little more upfront, it is well worth the extra dollars.

Dear Carla:

What is commercial towing?

Dear CPS Member:

Commercial towing is coverage, similar to CAA for your car. It covers your boat or trailer if voluntary help is unavailable and you need commercial assistance. For example, if your engine fails or you run out of gas, towing your boat to the nearest repair facility or delivering gas (excluding cost of gas) is covered. If you are towing your boat and trailer on land and you have a car accident, the towing of your boat and trailer is also covered.

Cowan only charges $15.00/year for commercial towing. It covers up to $500.00 per occurrence with no deductible.

Did you know that CPS members have access to Group Home and Auto Insurance rates?

As a CPS member, you have access to exclusive discounted group insurance rates. All you need to do is contact Aviva Traders at 1-877-787-7021 and tell them you are a CPS member. Or get an online quote at www.aviva-traders.com/cps. As a thank you, we'll enter your name for the chance to win a $5,000 Canadian vacation.

REMEMBER!

If you have any general boat insurance questions and/or stories, please email carla.lettenbauer@cowangroup.ca. Be sure to tell us it's for this particular newsletter!
If you have any general questions regarding the Group Home & Auto Program, please email debbie.mckenzie@cowangroup.ca. Be sure to tell us it's for this particular newsletter!

Cdr Vicky Grimshaw

The Pizza and Wing night at Macassa Bay Yacht Club, on Friday February 20 was a very enjoyable evening. Glynis Hornsey did a fine job of organizing the event. The decibel level indicated that everyone was eager to get "out of the barn" for some boat talk, plus tasty food and drink. The fine talk that Glenn Macdonald gave was most evocative, with pictures and music (some of which he wrote), about his survey work in the Canadian Arctic. The many questions and thoughtful answers indicated the great interest that the assembled crowd has about this last frontier. Glenn did not have all the answers, but he sure showed the fragile nature of this area and the many influences, like global warming.

A committee including Commander Vicky Grimshaw, Glynis Hornsey, Percy Brown, Glen Carruthers, Walter Plater and Mike Kott have been working on a Sixtieth Anniversary Yearbook. It will include pictures and articles from the past, celebrating the many years that our Hamilton Squadron has been teaching and promoting safe boating. This Yearbook will be distributed at the Wine and Cheese Reception on May 30th.

The HPS Breakfast on Sunday March 22 was again well received. We all dined in the elegant surroundings at Royal Hamilton Yacht Club. A fine breakfast that everyone seemed to enjoy was served up. After breakfast, MC and Training Officer Barry Courtman introduced Gill Bibby, who gave an incisive and informative discussion on Yacht Surveying. Glynis Hornsey did another outstanding job of organizing this event, which included several door prizes.

The Boating Classes will be completed by the time you receive this. The teachers and proctors are to be commended for all their dedication. We urge our graduates to come out to the Graduation and AGM on Friday May 1, at Macassa Bay Yacht Club to receive their certificates and flag.

On Saturday May 30 at 1400 at Royal Hamilton Yacht Club, a 60th Anniversary Wine and Cheese Reception will be held. Tickets for all social events may be reserved by contacting Glynis Hornsey at 905 527 1606.

Can winter be over? This has been one of the coldest, enduring winters that I can remember in some time. It will be great to get working on our boats again. As usual there is a big long list of stuff to do. It sure will be nice to get some calm and mild weather to get things on the go.

BERNICE...A SEQUEL

In the winter 07/08 issue of Dry Rot, I did an article on "Bernice" a classic P class sloop that once graced Hamilton Bay and Lake Ontario for many years. I enclosed a picture of Bernice all packed up on a transporter, all set to head back to her home waters off the coast of Maine. The picture was OK, but I pined for one of this fine vessel in full sail. There was more positive feedback about this article than anything I have ever written.

I was doing some googling while looking for some information on the builder of the converted lobster boat that I now have. The boat yard that now operates two combined companies (one of which built my boat) had several pictures posted on their web site showing some of the fine work they have done. Lo and behold two pictures came up of Bernice, all nicely refurbished, with a wreath adorning her bow, as she was being rechristened and lowered into the water. The second picture was a lovely shot of her under full sail.

So, for all you Bernice fans here are these pictures of this 100 year old beauty.

Mike Kott

MS Freedom of the Seas

The first time I saw her it was from a window in the shuttle that brought us from Miami airport. She was at the wharf, her great length and towering height were something that I could not have envisioned. Later I would be able to see her from a high vantage point in the old fort in St. Juan where the beautiful architecture of the super structure could be better viewed.

The structure at the bow is raked aft to the bridge and atop the bridge there are three disc shaped glazed levels stacked aft in stagger fashion. She presented a very clean and interesting exterior which we learned was not only beautiful but also very functional. Some of her stats may be of interest and I list them without comment:

Built Finland 2006 - Registry Bahamas -

Took 27 months to build

Tonnage 160,000 tons

- Length 1,112 feet - Draught 28 feet - Beam 184 feet

Height waterline to top of funnel 208 feet

Passenger capacity 3,634

Crew size 1,360 included—200 cooks

Elevators 12 - Decks 15 - Pools 3 - Hot tubs 6 - Bars 12

Rudder none - Propeller pods that turn 360 degrees

Horses 57,000 - Cruising speed 21.6 knots

Accessible via a glass foot bridge there was a promenade, which held shops, boutiques, coffee and pizza parlours etc. It was like a high end shopping mall and about the length of a decent city block - 440 feet. Other amenities were an ice skating rink with skates available, a theatre, a rock climbing wall and spas. There were many attractions for young children and teens.

We were fortunate in having a stateroom with a balcony at the stern which meant that there was very little pedestrian traffic close to us and we had view of the ship's wake which churned the Caribbean water from bright sunlit white through some gorgeous iridescent blues and greens.

The state room was well appointed with a king size bed, a three piece bath, refrigerator, flat screen TV, ample closet, safe, and a desk and chair. The 10X16 balcony deck came with two lounges, two chairs and a table.

Although we experienced force 10 Beaufort with the wind blowing the spray from the crests of the waves the ship was very stable and we were very comfortable. So stable was she that a wine glass on a shelf did not move. The motion however did encourage much napping, so much so that a record of four was achieved on one particular day by our commander.

Food, well everyone who cruises raves about the food and for good reason so all I will say is that if you intend to go, practice eating. Service was to me at least, beyond even minor reproach; the cosmopolitan crew bent over backward and jumped through hoops always cheerfully and often with good humour. They were to a man and woman as accommodating as even an old curmudgeon like me would be hard pressed to decry.

Many of the crew were from less fortunate parts of this world and were aboard for nine months during which they worked every day and often twelve or fourteen hours. Then it is two months off and back to the ship for another nine.

We disembarked at three islands in the eastern Caribbean but instead of going to the watch, ring and hat show we rented a car and drove to beaches and relaxed.

Upon receiving the keys to our much scratched and dented vehicle in St. Thomas we made the surprising observation that every one was driving on the wrong side of the road. We had no option so joined the crowd. The maximum speed was only 35 MPH but the hills and hairpins produced from our commander on several occasions, my name in full; the last syllable being a loud plaintive wail! I believe she may have found religion in those hills!

In closing I will state that the ship and her crew were deserving of all the superlatives and we are looking forward to our next cruise.

Space does not allow for some suggestions on cruising but if you are considering your first one, talk at length to an experienced cruiser. We learned a lot from fellow passengers and even from the crew; things that made our passage more enjoyable and that saved us good sums.

But all you sailors know that that is what boating is all about. Don't you?

Cal T

From the Training Officer

The 2008-09 training year has been very productive and busy.

We have 30 Boating Students eligible to write on April 7. In the fall of 2008 a GPS class of 6 students wrote and passed the course. This group was instructed by our Des Wood who passed away before the course was completed Gary Young instructed the remaining lessons.

A second GPS course of eight students instructed by Glen Carruthers was done in February 2009 and all were successful.

A Boat Pro course took place in February. 8 Students wrote and passed the boating proficiency test to obtain the pleasure craft operator card.

On April 2, 2009, 19 of the Boating class students wrote the accredited version of the boating proficiency test and all succeeded.

19 attended the VHF seminars and all were successful in getting certification for the marine radio telephone.

The Seamanship course is still underway and the exam will be written in April.

There will be another VHF course on April 19/09 and 11 participants have signed up for it to date.

I would like to thank the assistant training officer Glen Carruthers and also the proctors and instructors who came out all year long with little argument. It has been a learning experience for both Glen and me I hope we have fulfilled our job expectations properly.

Remember what you learned in class while on the water this summer.

Smooth sailing
